

Nafferton Feoffees Charities Trust

Scholarship Scheme 2020/21

Summary of Scheme

Nafferton Feoffees Charities Trust Committee is able to offer a discretionary scholarship to a student(s) resident in the ecclesiastical parish of Nafferton with Wansford. This is to be offered on an annual basis for the duration of their proposed course, to offset the educational expenses of the course.

Qualification Criteria

The scholarship is available to applicants;-

- Who live within the ecclesiastical parish of All Saints, Nafferton with St. Mary`s, Wansford.
- From any school or as a mature student.
- Intending any first degree course at an UK University or College.

The scholarship

- Will normally be awarded on an annual basis for the duration of a course of 3-4yrs duration (in exceptional circumstances, longer, at the discretion of the committee).
- It is intended to contribute to the educational expenses related to such a course, e.g. textbooks, educational equipment, study visits up to a maximum of (currently) £2,100 per annum.
- The committee shall determine the number of scholarships and their annual value.
- Shall cease to be awarded if the student fails, or abandons the course for which it was awarded. Evidence will be required of ongoing study on an annual basis.
- Successful applicants will be expected to provide feedback on progress on the course to the committee.
- It is intended that Scholarship awards will be made annually.
- This is not an academic scholarship.

The Selection Panel

- Shall comprise of two or three members of the Nafferton Feoffees Committee, of whom one shall be the Vice Chair. Additionally, a co-optee with particular experience in education may be another member.
- The selection panel may request the applicant`s school or college to provide a report.
